Re: boatcash website revisions

Tom: Following is an exact version of the boatcash website "rough draft" that you forwarded me, with my copy revisions. Please contact me to acknowledge receipt and to discuss. Thank you.

OPENING VISUALS:

- Dashboard of a boat in the lower half of the screen
- Blue water, sun and horizon in top half
- Sound: roar of a boat engine, rising
- On dashboard is a speedometer, calibrated in dollars: $250, $500, $750, $1000. The speedometer needle moves around the dial as the sound of the engine rises.

MY THOUGHTS: THIS SOUNDS INTERESTING. BUT IT MUST LOOK RIGHT OR I THINK WE WILL NEED TO DO SOMETHING DIFFERENT.

Text appears, coming up the horizon line until it covers the top of screen, then dissolves like spray:

BOATCASH

Two other lines come up, one at a time, and dissolve in the same way:

FACTORY DIRECT CASH
TO HELP BUY THE BOAT OF YOUR DREAMS!
